

“FUNNY” VIDEO CONCEPT

Jenna invites Cameron to her house for a homecooked dinner date.

Jenna takes a moment to use the bathroom and freshen up. She goes to flush and notices the toilet isn't flushing.

Jenna tries again, this time with more force.

The toilet does not flush fully and Jenna is fully in shock. She starts to freak out before her date notices that something is wrong.

Wait! Lightbulb noise effect Jenna pulls out her phone with the Yelp app open. There, she finds and contacts a nearby plumber.

Instantly, the plumber magically appears next to her toilet ready to fix it.

Tah-dah! The toilet is magically fixed all thanks to Yelp's convenient plumbing services.

As Jenna is ready to leave the bathroom, her date, Cameron checks up on her by asking "everything okay?". She responds "Yep... I got help with Yelp!"
